tered Australia incognito as an ordinary immigrant and took a job as a farm laborer in Victoria in order to excertain personally conditions with respect to migration to Australia.

Lady Apsley joined her husband in West Australia and both spent a fortinght in a group settlement in that state, posing as recent arrivals. Lord Apsley worked again as a day laborer, while Lady Apsley worked as a cook and did other ordinary domestic duties. The spectacle of members of the British aristocracy entering Australia in this unconventional manner caused some amusement, although Lord Apsley is applauded for his public spirit in endeavoring to secure information derived from personal experience.

'WILBUR MUST GO." WHY?

The Morning World of New York is out with an editorial broadside headed "Wilbur Must Co." Considering that the World is about the most hidebound party organ among conspicuous Democratic newspapers, this imperative will lose considerable force with Americans disposed to think coolly in the aeronautics controversy. It has been clear for some time that if the World had its way not only Mr. Wilbur would go but all of Mr. Coolidge's cabinet would go and Mr. Coolidge also, to be replaced presumably by a Democratic statesman approved by the World, which swallowed the Wilson administration hook, bait, and sinker, including that memorable naval genius Josephus

What impresses us in the World's remarks on Wilbur is the magnanimous self-restraint which has withheld it from demanding Mr. Wilbur's in confirmatory of investigations of a prosecution for homicide on the ground that he is somewhat different kind by Caltell, Ellis, culpably responsible for the deaths of Commander and Galton. he palmed off defective lights on the S-51. Obviously, such an individual must go, and, as the World remarks regretfully, in Europe no ministry could survive the storm of righteous indignation which an exposure of such incompetence and downright turpitude would raise.

However, our system is less responsive and we assume that the World's opinion of Mr. Wilbur will not be fatal either to him or Mr. Coolidge. The American people have a sense of justice and 5-Regain Constitutional Representation something of the sense that is called common. THE AUTUMN EXPOSITION

Modern art movements, the Grownups have said, express themselves in Paris Expositions. The Grownups know everything, and they ought to know that, too. But Young People have their own Exposition, as modern and gay as any, and it lasts all the year round. It has only one idea, to exhibit and provide everything the Junior World needs, from the youngest up to Magnificent Seventeen! And now the Autumn Exposition is a special way of announcing the Junior Floor's readiness for the new season.

In this Exposition there are two very delightful advantages. The "exhibits" are not just for "show." They are to use and enjoy. [Think of the jolly party such clothes as those sketched will be worn to 1] And all the accessories, too, that make the right Junior costume can be chosen on this one Floor, the Fourth.

WARD BAKING COMPANY - CHICAGO

"Has your business grown as fast as The Chicago Tribune?"

WO years ago we asked this question. The Chicago Tribune was then celebrating its seventy-fifth birthday and—up to that time—the most prosperous and vigorous period of its life.

Now we are asking the question again. Has your business grown as fast as The Chicago Tribune during the past two years?

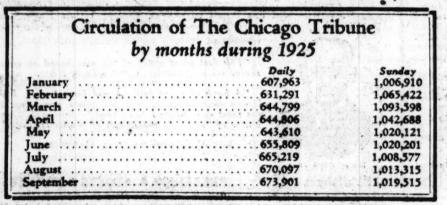

Many manufacturers and merchants decided two years ago to grow with The Tribune and through The Tribune. We can tell you the stories of business organizations which had gone along for years making modest gains and which, in a short time, have jumped to leader-ship by using adequate space and letting The Tribune carry the burden of their advertising attack.

Tribune circulation and Tribune advertising lineage have enjoyed a startling growth—a steadily increasing confidence of readers and advertisers. During the last six months—a period of hot weather slumps for most newspapers—the Sunday circulation of The Tribune has never dropped below a million. The daily circulation of The Tribune has climbed steadily all summer, and is going stronger than ever. No other Chicago newspaper has approached The Tribune's record in advertising gain this year.

Where will your business be two years hence? Will it grow as fast as The Chicago Tribune? If you are not now taking full advantage of this powerful sales-building enterprise, don't let vain regrets replace the growth that can be yours.

together. If you wear a double breast ed coat you must not wear a double breasted waistcoat, but a single breasted. With a single breasted jacket either the double or single breasted vest may be worn, according The reason for not wearing a double coat should be clear enough. For both be too much bulk.

Here are some smart color schemes seen lately: One consisted of a gray blue suit, a yellow and white striped lowe'en. shirt, and four-in-hand tie of gray and dark yellow stripes.

Another color scheme was made up four-in-hand tie of black and white Spitalfields silk. A dark blue suit was worn with solid blue shirt, and striped tie of dark blue and two shades of lighter blue. Another dark blue suit was worn with in hand tie of black and silver checks. A blue and red foulard handkerchief was in the breast pocket.

Homemaking Course YOUNG WOMEN

HE School of Domestic Arts and Science offers a course in Homemaking which continues through the period of a regular school year (this year beginning October 6.)

GHE Homemaking Course is one of the most enjoyable and interesting in the whole choice of courses to be had at the School. It covers home furnishing, budgeting, cookery, marketing, menu planning, the art of entertaining, child care, running a home with servants and without them, sewing, dressmaking

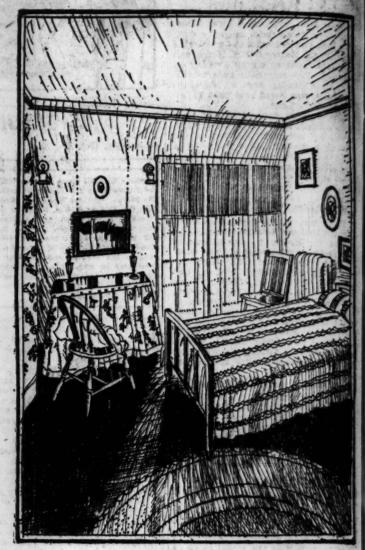

BESIDES, there is the modern six room apartment called the "Practice Home", in which you learn homemaking at first hand and each candidate for the diploma may live here at least four weeks, playing all the roles of actual homemaker, hostess and worker.

Whether or Not the Home Is the Thing—has been proved by the School of Domestic Arts and Science, now in its twenty-fifth year, and whose enrollment since 1907 alone has increased over 900 per cent. It has a Day School and an Evening School. And, even with so many women occupied outside the Home, as many women are today, the fact remains that The Home Is the Thing as the Evening School testifies.

Pro Sports O. K., but Keep WHITE SOX SEE Colleges Clean, Griffith Says

Maj. John L. Griffith, athletic comnissioner of the western conference, has combated professionalism in school sports for many years. He believes college athletics are threatened now more than ever, with the danger of becoming professionalized through the efforts of big promoters to hire the college stars. The Tribune asked Maj. Griffith to explain his stand. He does so in the following article.

BY MAJ. J. L. GRIFFITH. [Reprinted from yesterday's late editions.]
For my part, I believe that we have a place for professional athletics. Most of the men playing in the big baseball leagues are good citizens, and their exhibitions furnish fine entertainment for the spectators. I doubt, owever, if many people would recommend that we should hire our players in the schools and colleges and sell them and transfer them as the players in the big leagues are sold and trans Others who would not approve of hiring the school and college boys The match between Miss Collett and Miss Cummings drew the greater gallery.

To illustrate, we do not match the golf club member with the club professional, because the club member probably plays golf for sport while the other, who makes a business of it, is or should be more proficient than the former. If Frankie Frisch were to leave the New York Giants and go back to college most people would feel that it would not be fair for him to play against the boys who had not had professional training.

Race Longest of Season for 2 Year Olds.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Aurora, Ill., Oct. 2.—[Special.]—For the first time in the west this year two year olds were asked to go a mile here this afternoon. The filly Fanny Courtin of stylish breeding was the winner. Fanny is a daughter of the English bred Royal II.-Miss Alert, and she turned in an effort over a muddy track that stamped her as a routegoer of much promise. She beat the Ken-tucky bred Earl Combs by two lengths. with Alice Joyce another length back in the third place.

Viking, carrying the familiar green gold and white sliks of A. E. Barrett of the board of trade, broke so fast that for a time it looked like he would For three-quarters, he raced in front, but rounding the last turn folded Jockey L. Pichon rated Fanny Courtin ong nicely early in the journey, and when Viking stopped Pichon came up with a rush, racing from next to last when Viking stopped Pichon came up with a rush, racing from next to last position into the lead by the time midway of the stretch was reached. The filly had an easy time holding the others safe the rest of the way.

The two year old route affair shared the spotlight with the Island City handicap, a dash at 6 furlongs, which engaged some high powered sprinters and which brought a surprise victory for the overlooked Cherrycote. Theo Fay was second and much the best, but was taken wide on the turn into the stretch. Publisher, also taken extremely wide on the last turn, was third.

Indications of steady expansion in incoming business and the growing belief that unfilled orders for September will show the first increase in many months furnished the background for U. S. Steel's exhibition of strength. The stock reached a new high on the current move at 123%, five points above the week's low level, and closed 1% points net higher at 1234. Oil stocks were benefited by indicar that the industry's position was being steadily improved by curtailment of crude production. Mariand, Mid-Continent, Pan-American "B," and the Gennent, Pan-American "B," and the General Asphalt issues were in brisk domand throughout the day. Other issues which were prominent in the day's advance were Texas-Gulf Sulphur, Woolworth, American Linseed, American Asricultural Chemical, Havana Electric, Lococ-Wiles Biscuit, and U. S. Realty.

Trading in the valiroad shares continued listless, but was enlivened in spots by active bidding for Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line.

The outcome of the French debt funding negotiations caused a break of about ten points in French france to below 4.65 cents and a sympathetic reaction in Belgian francs and Italian lire. Demand sterling hovered around 34.23 11-15, the lowest level since Great Britain's return to the gold standard.

REAL OPPORTUNITY FOR REAL MEN. Now is the time to think, and think seriously, about the right connection for this winter. Florida offers the greatest money-making opportunity on the market today for salesmen, and our men share in this opportunity.

Our development at Gardendale comprises 50,000 acres, which guarantees you a permanent, stable connection, as well as a real money-making opportunity.

A full-page opening announcement in tomorrow's Tribune starts our great advertising campaign. Leads are distributed on a guaranteed territory basis, although you can sell anywhere in the city of Chicago without restriction.

Call today and see Mr. W. E. Swanson regarding allotment of preferred territory. Act now and make a real connection with a proposition that is absolutely right-with a real organization and enormous financial resources behind it.

A GOOD USED CAR FOR OCTOBER

October is the finest month the year for open car drivng. In a roadster or a tourng car a Sunday drive in the country is a tonic. You're out in the crisp autumn air. The bracing breeze, the smell of falling leaves - nothing equals it. The roads aren't crowded, and a brisk drive for a few hours in an automobile that is wide open to the sunshine means health, exhilaration, and a wonderful appetite. We are offering a number of October Specials in good used open cars. They are in good condition, priced right, and can be bought on convenient time payments. Look over this list.
